

Fees and Rebates – Individual therapy for clients

Naomi Iliffe – Principal Psychologist

$200.00 per 50min session

A Medicare rebate of $88.25 is available with a GP referral and mental health care plan. You may also be eligible for rebates from your Private Health Fund and will need to check with your individual insurance provider.

Medicare provides a rebate of up to 10 sessions per calendar year. Currently, under the COVID-19 pandemic provisions, Medicare can provide a rebate of an additional 10 sessions (to a maximum of 20 sessions per calendar year), however you will require an additional referral from your GP to access the COVID-19 rebated sessions.

Concession: $120.00 (Medicare rebate of $88.25 with a GP referral and mental health care plan). From time to time concession rates are available under exceptional circumstances. If you require further information, please discuss this with Naomi during your initial enquiry.

If you are referred under an NDIS plan, fees are charged at the NDIS rate of $214 per 50min session.

If you are referred under Victims Services, you are not required to make payment.

Jem Maddox – Mental Health Social Worker

$100.00 per 50min session.

Jem is not currently able to provide the Medicare rebates and her reduced rates reflect this.

You may be eligible for rebates from your Private Health Funds Please check with your practitioner.
